3

Supervisor Knabe made the following statement:

“As part of this Board providing new funding to the Sheriff’s Department to add jail beds to our custody system, the Sheriff has instituted a policy to hold all misdemeanor violators of gang injunctions for 100% of their court-imposed sentence. The Sheriff should be applauded for this new policy as it will help to alleviate gang crime within Los Angeles County. This is an important policy that should be tracked on a quarterly basis.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Knabe, seconded by Supervisor Yaroslavsky, unanimously carried, the Sheriff was requested to provide the Board with a status report, on a quarterly basis, showing that all gang injunction violators have been serving 100% of their court-imposed sentence.
